SUBJECT: RA 3 series is now UL certified!

We are pleased to inform you that the RA3 series from Greenheck India is now UL certified for 250 deg C for 2 hours. Effective with the April CAPS® 4.41 release, UL offering shall be included and available for selection and offering to customers.

We believe UL certification shall be an added advantage that will strengthen our product portfolio and provide us with a competitive edge. You will also find this information on the official website of UL <https://productiq.ulprospector.com/>

As always, thanks for your efforts, good luck and good selling!

Regards,
Mukul
